Bonding with Babies by Sharing Books

Sharing Books with Babies

Pick the best time—
when both of you are in the mood.

Bonding is most important—
you don't have to read every word—point to pictures
and talk in an excited voice.

Watch baby—
let baby play with the book and take a break if baby's not having fun.

Cuddle—
touch and love baby while sharing books.

Share books every day—
it's important, even if only for a few minutes.
