Boom, Fizz, Popping into Summer Reading for Young Children:
Partnering with Parents for Success

Saroj Ghoting sghoting@gmail.com 540-381-2676

Please arrange for me to be able to start to set up at the training location one hour before starting time. Thank you.

Assignment: Please bring a written storytime plan the books you use. The storytime should be a traditional storytime, not one with a science or math theme/topic. If you do not do storytimes, please bring two books that preschoolers would enjoy.

Equipment

LCD Projector (I will bring laptop)

Microphone (wireless lavelier preferred) if more than 40 participants or if room is large

Speakers to connect to laptop

2 flipchart stands and paper (at least 30 sheets total)

Extension cords if needed

Podium (if possible)

Room Arrangement:

Up front: 2 library tables and 2 chairs

For participants: participants sitting at tables of 4 if possible

Handouts to be Copied (1 set per person)

Nametags for participants

Folder for each participant includes: (two-sided ok, black and white ok)

See <http://www.earlylit.net/workshops/materialsscimath.shtml> for handouts

Books Needed: (If there are any you cannot get, just let me know.)

Please have 1 copy each of the following titles:

Do You Know Which Ones Will Grow? by Shea

Doorbell Rang by Hutchins

Pete the Cat: White Shoes by Litwin

There Was a Tree by Isadora

And one of the following titles for each group of 4 people: (For 50 people, you'll need 13 copies of any combination of these books; so if you have a lot of copies of Napping House and only a couple of the other titles, for example, that's just fine.)

Napping House by Wood

Flower Garden by Bunting

Swimmy by Lionni

Jump Frog Jump by Kalan
